Personally Speaking . . .

BY ARNOLD JACKSON
CFAC SPORTS DEPT.

The Calgary Stampeders are entering a brand new year with only 11 names that are household words in these parts. The returnees' include Bob Peers, Mike Orman, George Hill, Pete Weston, Carl Chwahka, Ted Demchuk, Pat Halas, Carl Forester, and Dave Haley. Returning to the senior ranks after a years absence is that powerful defensive blueliner Rudy Balon, and on the forward attack - Scott Watson.

Rudy Balon, once a great defenceman with the now defunct Calgary Spurs organization returns to the senior ranks after a years layoff. Rudy claims he has lost about 20 pounds and feels he is in far better shape than ever before. Scott Watson, also a former member of the Spurs club, took a years leave to play in Holand. Scott's agile and swift stick handling tactics, make him one of the most important assets the Stampeders have going for them.

The new captain of the Stampeders is veteran defenseman Bob Peers, while George Hill is an assistant to the position, and newcomer Rick Hextal holds the other assistant captains honours.

Neither of last years netminders have returned. Dale Gaume has moved to the Peace River district of Alberta and Jim Letcher departed for other hockey duties in Canada. But the position of Goaltending looks like it will not pose a serious problem as Gary Simmonds fills the gap very well, and Phil Nenneau promises to handle the back up duties with confidence.

So if there are problems with getting organized this year, I don't hardly think we can point the finger at the veterans of past seasons. Not knowing the rookies on the squad this season, it would seem to me that they will probably present the difference in the club's outcome. But don't get me wrong. I'm not saying the new guys won't be working hard, or aren't good hockey players. All I'm suggesting is that they might not skate well with the more experienced returnees for the time being — but I'm sure they will all get to play well once they get the feel of the other boys on the club.

In predicting the outcome of the season, let me go down on record (with Bill Powers of the Albertan) as saying "I think you will see the Calgary Stampeders playing the Spokane Jets in the Western Allan Cup final, and if the Stamps can get past their American Counterparts - they may just break a record set in 1946 by an organization that went under the same banner and name as our big red machinery.

And wouldn't it be nice to see the Allan Cup, earned right here in the Stampede Corral. It could happen next spring.
